Summary

The Cultural Youth Prevention Worker (CYPW) will provide culturally based services to Indigenous youth between the ages of 12-29 years living in Ottawa who are at risk of or are survivors of violence and victimization in the Ottawa urban Indigenous communities. The program will offer culturally based programming for youth using a holistic well-being approach to strengthen and inform self identity and decrease the risk factors that contribute to violence and victimization, including human trafficking, and increase protective factors to build strengths, skills and resiliency in Indigenous youth and their families.

Job Responsibilities

- Provide one-on-one individual support such as basic needs, service referrals for mental health, addictions, crisis support, navigation, transportation to appointments and advocacy and mentorship for twenty (20) Indigenous youth per quarter.
- Provide culturally relevant youth violence and/or human trafficking prevention services.
- Advocate for and support youth to re-engage in academic and employment related initiatives.
- Support families of youth that may be at risk of violence, victimization, and human trafficking.
- Advocate and support activities for youth to access pro-social lifestyles, positive relationships, and role models specific to their cultural background.
- Attend quarterly meetings with other community groups or agencies working specifically with Indigenous youth.
- Participate in outreach activities with existing community partners to form new partnerships, and to engage Indigenous youth not currently in the Minwaashin Lodge network.

- Offer two (2) weekly culture-based drop-in sessions for youth, with programming needs dependant on youth interests and needs that address cultural revitalization and teachings relating to linguistic, spiritual and cultural practices of Indigenous peoples.
- Support in house annual events i.e., Annual Women's Gathering; Children and Youth Pow- wow and Children's Winter Giveaway.
- Promote the program via social media and with community partners.
- Administration of pre and post surveys among youth, as well as numerical attendance logs.
- Ensure confidentiality is maintained with all documentation of clients.
- Actively participate in weekly/bi-weekly team, and monthly staff meetings.
- Actively participate in training and professional development activities relevant to the position as approved by the Executive Director.
- Adhere to Minwaashin's Policies and Procedures ensuring good ethical boundaries and confidentiality are always in place.
- Other duties as assigned by the Supervisor or designate that are within the specifications of the Cultural Youth Prevention position.

Qualifications

- Post-secondary education or equivalent work experience, with at least 3 years' working with an urban Indigenous community.
- Knowledge of the Indigenous and non-Indigenous service system in the Ottawa area including shelter services, food banks, soup kitchens and drop-in centers.
- Knowledge of youth specific programs and supports offered throughout the Ottawa region
